

TRANSPLANT SELECTION CRITERIA Adult Liver

Inclusion Criteria

- Irreversible liver failure

Absolute Exclusion Criteria

- Psychosocial instability that would interfere with compliance
- Severe psychiatric impairment which would interfere with ability to understand informed consent and compliance with therapeutic regimen
- Severe neurological impairment
- Active systemic infection
- Active cancer
- Severe cardiovascular disease
- Active alcohol, narcotic abuse or illicit drug use
- Absence of funding for the transplant procedure and/or medications post-transplant
- Pregnancy

Possible Exclusion Criteria

- HIV (patients will be referred to a center specializing in HIV positive transplant procedures)
- History of Cancer - The Israel Penn International Transplant Tumor Registry (IPITTR) will be consulted on an individual basis regarding recommendations for waiting time prior to transplant consideration

TRANSPLANT SELECTION CRITERIA Pediatric Liver

Inclusion Criteria

- Irreversible liver failure

Absolute Exclusion Criteria

- Psychosocial instability of care provider that would interfere with compliance
- Severe psychiatric impairment which would interfere with ability of care provider to understand informed consent and compliance with therapeutic regimen
- Severe neurological impairment
- Active systemic infection
- Active cancer
- Severe cardiovascular disease
- Active alcohol, narcotic abuse or illicit drug use
- Absence of funding for the transplant procedure and/or medications post-transplant
- Pregnancy

Possible Exclusion Criteria

- HIV (patients will be referred to a center specializing in HIV positive transplant procedures)
- History of Cancer - The Israel Penn International Transplant Tumor Registry (IPITTR) will be consulted on an individual basis regarding recommendations for waiting time prior to transplant consideration